

The ezIQC – A Simple Solution for Job Order Contracting!

The Department of Administrative Services, State Purchasing Division's, ezIQC® statewide contract (SWC90818) was launched in 2009. Currently, there are eight qualified suppliers serving 12 regions to include the Georgia Atlantic Contractors, Sorenson Gross Construction, Centennial Contractors, Lesco Restorations, Prime Contractors, F. H. Paschen, Johnson-Laux Construction, and J. J. Morley Enterprises.

As a component of the ezIQC® contract, The Gordian Group, Inc. (TGG), a recognized indefinite quantity construction agreement expert, provides independent scope of work development and price proposal review services to any entity purchasing construction through the ezIQC® contracts.

The ezIQC® is a simple alternative for purchasing on-call facility renovation and modified construction services. The competitive bid prices that are available through cooperative purchasing allow buyers to rapidly and efficiently get projects completed without delay. Using the ezIQC® contract supports the use of local small and disadvantaged businesses. It also speeds up the ordering of construction services and at the same time lowers cost, and increases quality and transparency.

Key benefits of the ezIQC® contract includes:

- Average procurement time of 20 days from project identification to purchase order;
- Competitive firm fixed prices based on volume discounts;
- pre-priced construction task catalogs prepared specifically for Georgia encompassing all divisions of construction;
- ezIQC® staff available to walk you through entire process for every project from detailed scope development through proposal review and acceptance at no additional cost;
- NO RISK- you can try ezIQC® at no cost and no obligation!

Since the ezIQC® was established by the Department of Administrative Services in 2009, approximately 864 projects have been completed resulting in more than $43M in spend. All state entities, schools, city and local government agencies are encouraged to use this contract in order to benefit from the cost savings and expedited service it provides.

It is very easy to get started. Please follow the simple steps below:
